

Proteus Gowanus

invites you to stop by to purchase protean gifts from the deep created by seven culturally rich non-profit organizations

Hours:

Thur and Fri 4- 7 pm
Sat and Sun 12 – 6 pm
and by appointment

On Sunday, December 11th, visit our evolving Interdisciplinary Travel Exhibit, have a cup of hot chocolate, and then stop by our neighbor, The Empty Vessel, a salvaged 65 foot WWII rescue boat being transformed into a center for action, art, and sustainability.

Sample Gifts

- *Magazines, books, posters, gift wrap, an “Evil” exit sign, and p-mates enabling women to pee standing up, as seen in CABINET MAGAZINE
- *Crocheted models of hyperbolic space developed by a Cornell mathematician, compliments of THE INSTITUTE FOR FIGURING
- *Contemporary drawings, prints, and works on paper from the KENTLER INTERNATIONAL DRAWING SPACE SATELLITE FLATFILE
- *Beautiful handmade poetry books published by UGLY DUCKLING PRESSE
- PLACE IN HISTORY’S books about the underlying social and physical fabric of our city
- *Brooklyn honey, honeycombs, and bee related items, a portion of proceeds benefiting BROOKLYN COMMUNITY HOUSING SERVICES
- *Unusual Georgian jewelry and embroidered silk bags, a portion of proceeds donated to a village for street children in (formerly Soviet) Georgia via AMERICAN FRIENDS OF GEORGIA
- *Award winning wooden block sets for children
- *Rare, unusual, and handmade books
- *Paintings, and mixed media works from our Interdisciplinary Travel Exhibit

We look forward to seeing you!

543 Union Street, Brooklyn, NY 11231
Enter on Nevins St. side of building, through double gates 718.243.1572 (subway/driving directions on our recording)
www.proteusgowanus.com